Hello everyone,

We have an update from the tournament! Carol Hyndman has written a brief. Please see it below.

For those of you who have off on Monday, have a great three-day weekend.

Hi Kelly,

Thought I'd give you an update on how things are going here.

We started out at the hotel breakfast bar this morning and excitement was in the air. The team is doing great, they are very excited about being here.

We just finished our second game. We have about 45 minutes until we have opening ceremonies which include pizza and a band. The overall experience has been a good one, it's very organized and the games are pretty close to starting on time. The first team we played didn't seem to be a good match for us, we think they could have been a division B team but they listed themselves as a division C. The second team was a much better match for us and I think the team spirit has recovered nicely.

Aaron and some of the team were able to enjoy the heated pool in between the games.

We're looking forward to tomorrow's game but not the drive home.

We miss you guys and wish you were here.

Carol
